

Mission Statement

The Bibb County Chamber of Commerce exists to promote civic responsibility; to further a better understanding between the public and business people; to encourage a close personal relationship among the business people of Bibb County; to encourage and develop a healthy environment for business in Bibb County; to enhance the purchasing power of the public; to cooperate with any governmental unit or agency to effectuate the foregoing purposes; and to work so that in the end, Bibb County will continue to be a better place in which to live and work. The Bibb County Chamber of Commerce is run by a voluntary Board of Directors. Our members are our strength and we are proud to serve them and Bibb County.

Key Benefits of Chamber Membership

Referral Services:

Many calls are received daily at the local chamber office asking about all aspects of visiting or living in our area. The Bibb County Chamber of Commerce only gives out the names of membership.

Business Exposure:

Members may bring brochure advertising to the chamber for visitors to see. Your information will also be included in perspective resident packets that are distributed all over the United States.

Grow Your Business:

Take advantage of these free seminars for members only. They are focused around the needs of business in today's economy and technology, especially for small businesses.

Internet Access:

Members who provide us with their Internet address will automatically be linked to through the Chamber's website as well as our Facebook page.

Run Rudolph:

Every December, the Chamber hosts a 5K run and a Fun Run to get your Christmas off to a running start.

Chamber Connection:

We print a semiannual magazine called "The Chamber Connection", keeping you up to date with what is going on at the Chamber and in Bibb County. It includes a calendar of events and interviews from local businesses. Advertising is available in this publication. Call to find out more information.

Chamber Coffees & After Hours:

These are public social events held at local businesses during or after work to give attendees an opportunity to network with other people in the area who want Bibb County to be the best it can be.

Golf Tournament:

A Chamber annual event. This event is held at the Cahaba Falls Country Club. Sponsorship, team details and applications can be picked up at the Chamber.

Bibb Belles:

Bibb Belles are the Role models and Ambassadors of Bibb County. They are available for most county wide events and fund-raisers. If you would like the Bibb Belles at your next event, call and get put on the schedule.
